23 Read the source given below and answer the questions that follows

Source : Not everyone welcomed the printed book and those who did also had fears about it. Many were apprehensive of the effects that the easier access to the printed word and the widest circulation of books, could have on people's minds. It was feared that if there was no control over what was printed and read then rebellious religious and irreligious thoughts might spread. If that happened the authority of 'valuable' literature would be destroyed. Expressed by religious authorities and monarchs as well as many writers and artists, this anxiety was the basis of widespread criticism of the new printed literature that had begun to circulate.
